WASHINGTON, D.C.

Young Doctor April 28-30, 2016

Our nation's capital is the background for an educational and fun filled long weekend. The Smithsonian Museum complex – along the National Mall – with Air & Space, National Gallery, Natural History Museum – among others is unrivaled anywhere. Touring possibilities are endless – memorials such as Lincoln, Jefferson, FDR, Martin Luther King, Vietnam - Georgetown, the legislature, the White House, Washington Zoo and International Spy Museum help make Washington DC an extraordinary city to explore. Evenings are great in D.C. Lively, hip international dining and a rich music scene can be found in the Arts District, U Street and Logan Circle. Plan ahead and book a play or concert at the magnificent Kennedy Center.

Perfectly situated on Dupont Circle in the heart of Washington DC, moments from the city's historic sights including the National Mall and the Smithsonian Museums, The Dupont Circle Hotel is a landmark in itself, and exceptionally placed for those looking to savor this architecturally striking neighborhood and city.

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA May 19-21, 2016

Asheville and the surrounding mountains are full of exciting and eclectic things to do. Here is only a partial list of all the possible activities. The scope and variety of great cuisine is phenomenal in and around Asheville.

- The Biltmore Estate: consists of a 250-room French Chateau, beautifully landscaped gardens, award-winning winery, three restaurants and over 8,000 acres of grounds. Biltmore House was the grand country home of George Washington Vanderbilt and stands today as America's largest privately owned home. The tour is fascinating!
- Galleries: Asheville, NC, ranks 13th in the nation for art galleries, home to wonderful museums that feature local artists (fine handmade glass, jewelry and oil paintings) as well as national and international exhibits.
- Great Smoky Mountains Railroad: Guests on board the Great Smoky Mountains Railroad enjoy year-round scenic train journeys across fertile valleys, through tunnels and across river gorges in the Mountains.
- Blue Ridge Parkway: One of America's finest driving routes, the Parkway follows the Blue Ridge Mountains from Virginia to the Great Smoky Mountains. Whether you spend 2 hours or two days, the views are exquisite.
- Southern Waterways: Canoe, raft or kayak in Asheville on the scenic French Broad River through the Biltmore Estate property. Silent canoes and trails allow a peaceful, relaxing look at the French Broad River and its history and wildlife.
- Pack Place Education, Arts and Science Center, River Arts, and Arboretum

We are very pleased to be returning to the prestigious Grove Park Inn and Spa located in the beautiful mountains of North Carolina.
