Cuba – March 8-12, 2015

One Day Tax Update Seminar

Collier & Associates is organizing a delegation to visit Cuba for the purpose of researching "The Role of Oral Health Within the Community Based Health Care System in Cuba," and invite you to join in this unique opportunity. We are very pleased with the tremendous response we have received for this trip. We have personally visited Cuba, stayed at the upscale hotel and dined at many of these same restaurants. We met one of our clients in the airport and he strongly encouraged us to organize a seminar in Cuba.

Our delegation will convene in Miami, Florida on March 8, 2015 at which time we will depart for Cuba. You can return to the United States on March 12, 2015 or elect a relaxing post program for an additional three nights at a lovely resort on Cuba's famous beaches. Delegates will participate in professional meetings and site visits each day; the final meetings and topics for discussion will be determined by the interests and composition of the team.

For those interested in sharing your experience in Cuba, a parallel program of "People to People" activities will be developed for guests in conjunction with the National Trust. It will highlight the arts, architecture, music, dance, cuisine, etc.

The estimated cost per delegation member is $3,995 U.S.D. This cost includes roundtrip international air arrangements between Miami and Havana; Cuban Visa and mandatory health insurance, group transportation, meetings, accommodations in double-occupancy rooms, most meals, and essentially all other costs associated with participation. Brandon Collier will conduct a 4 hour tax update course that is required for all attendees. The cost is $495 for single travelers or couples. Please RSVP to Professionals Abroad at 1-877-298-9677.
