

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA – THE VENETIAN

Young Doctor Seminar – March 13-15, 2014 Practice Transition Seminar – March 15-16, 2014

As we go to print, we have only four rooms left in our room block. Mid March is a perfect time to visit Sin City. Join us at one of these informative seminars!

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO – THE ELDORADO MAY 16-18, 2014 – Mini Week

Santa Fe is a place that continually earns the praise of those who live there and those who visit. It remains one of the world's favorite destinations in the annual readers' poll of Conde Nast Traveler. Northern New Mexico is an area with an exciting history, diverse culture and dramatic scenery and architecture. Great drives, fabulous hikes and Los Alamos are close by. The depth and breadth of art created in the Santa Fe area is enormous. Canyon Road is world renowned for its more than two miles of art galleries. Besides galleries, Santa Fe has nine museums including The Georgia O'Keefe and International Folk Art Museums.

Some of the finest meals we have ever eaten were in Santa Fe's restaurants - they are superb, varied and loaded with ambience. Shopping is exciting – with beautiful leathers, jewelry, clothing and home furnishings that are displayed in charming shops on narrow cobblestone streets and in the colorful old plaza.

The luxurious Eldorado Hotel & Spa truly captures the spirit of Santa Fe. It is perfectly located. At this AAA 4 Diamond hotel, guests enjoy fabulous cuisine at The Old House, relax in Agave Lounge and are pampered at the lavish Nidah Spa. The room amenities include high-speed Internet, sleek flat screen TVs, plush terrycloth robes, and nightly turndown service.

We have great group rates of $249 double which includes a full breakfast buffett (not including sales tax).

PRACTICE TRANSITION SEATTLE, WASHINGTON – JULY 25, 2014

Seattle is considered the Queen City of the Northwest. From its global thinking to its coffee drinking, Seattle is a collection of places, ideas and cultures. A coastal city that lies equidistant from Tokyo and London, Seattle is truly a cultural melting pot, particularly shaped by the Pacific Rim in everything from architecture to the eclectic Seattle cuisine.

Surrounded by water and mountains, Seattle is a haven for the outdoor minded as well as urban dwellers who bask in the hip boutiques, Pike Place Farmer's Market, glass art galleries, and world-class museums. Whether your interests run to contemporary or traditional art, aviation, native cultures or history, Seattle's many museums offer something for everyone. Also, Washington State Ferries enjoy the distinction of being the nation's largest ferry system and the state's #1 tourist attraction.

In Seattle, the best in urban recreation is at your fingertips. Opportunities to enjoy the Northwest's green and blue landscape abound: golfing, biking, kayaking, sailing and fishing just to name a few.
