

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA – GROVE PARK INN Aggressive Business, Tax & Practice Management Seminar May 19-21, 2016

We are happy to announce Michael Boulegeris as a guest speaker at our Asheville, North Carolina seminar.

MICHAEL BOULEGERIS ON STOCKS

Boulegeris Investments, Inc. Atlanta – A graduate of West Point, Mike is the founder of Boulegeris Investments, Inc., an SEC-registered investment advisor. Mr. Boulegeris is also one of the Co-Founders of MAP Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a biopharmaceutical company that was acquired by Allergan in March 2013. Among the many topics that Mike will address are the anticipated normalization of interest rates and the ongoing revolution in novel therapeutics advancing the pharmaceutical industry. He will tie up the presentation discussing the direction of his research to identify specific sectors and individual companies that should thrive in the dynamic global macro environment.

We are very pleased to be returning to the prestigious Grove Park Inn and Spa located in the beautiful mountains of North Carolina. Since 1913, The Grove Park Inn has been a destination for discerning travelers and business professionals. It has hosted numerous presidents (from Woodrow Wilson to George Bush) and celebrities. Spring is a delightful season to visit, as flowers are in bloom and drives on the Blue Ridge Parkway are exquisite.

Set on over 100 acres of manicured grounds, The Grove Park Inn and Spa is complimented by an 18 hole Donald Ross championship golf course, multi-million dollar spa, delicious restaurants, outstanding tennis facilities, indoor and outdoor pools and hiking trails. The Spa features delightful extras, such as a café, boutique and workout area. Besides golf there's tennis – indoor and out; restaurants - Grove Park has a wide variety; hiking - Experience the majestic mountains North Carolina and Children's Program - Children ages 5 to 12 enjoy activities.

Our outstanding group rates at The Grove Park Inn start at $315 double occupancy plus taxes and fees. This rate includes a breakfast for two. Rooms will be held as a block until April 4, 2016, unless exhausted earlier.

Asheville and the surrounding mountains are full of exciting and eclectic things to do. Here is only a partial list of all the possible activities. The scope and variety of great cuisine is phenomenal in and around Asheville.

- The Biltmore Estate: 250-room French Chateau, beautifully landscaped gardens, award-winning winery, restaurants and over 8,000 acres of grounds. Biltmore House was the grand country home of George Washington Vanderbilt.
- Galleries: Asheville, NC, ranks 13th in the nation for art galleries, home to wonderful museums that feature local artists (fine handmade glass, jewelry and oil paintings) as well as national and international exhibits.
- Great Smoky Mountains Railroad: Guests on board the Great Smoky Mountains Railroad enjoy year-round scenic train journeys across fertile valleys, through tunnels and across river gorges in the Mountains.
- Blue Ridge Parkway: One of America's finest driving routes, the Parkway follows the Blue Ridge Mountains from Virginia to the Great Smoky Mountains. Whether you spend 2 hours or two days, the views are exquisite.
- Southern Waterways: Canoe, raft or kayak in Asheville on the scenic French Broad River through the Biltmore Estate property. Silent canoes and trails allow a peaceful, relaxing look at the French Broad River and its history and wildlife.
